Social Media Policy

Using Social Media for Personal Purposes

Members who presently maintain individual pages on social media sites to connect with their families and friends need to recognize their responsibilities as members of Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club when they publish content on those sites. As members of Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club, please be aware of the following expectations:

- You are personally responsible for any published content and will be liable to be disciplined for commentary, content, or images that are defamatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, discriminatory, libelous, or that can cause hostility with others
- Examples of inappropriate content include:
 - Reference/photos of alcohol or illicit substances
 - Photos with revealing clothing
 - Disclosure of confidential information relating to past or future colleagues, volunteers, members, participants, or other persons associated with the Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club.
 - Posting disparaging, discriminatory, harassing, or defamatory information about past, present, or future colleagues, volunteers, members, participants, guests or other persons associated with the Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club.

You may have legal liability for any information you contribute over any online communication channels regarding the Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club.

Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club reserves the right to modify this policy at any time.

Note:

This policy is intended to provide guidelines for members who may access social media networks for personal purposes. It is not intended to violate or improperly interfere with individual rights, or privacy, but rather to ensure that members maintain a professional standard while associated with the Caboolture Lakes bowls Club.
